STEVE BISCIOTTI

OWNER • 10TH SEASON

COLLEGE Salisbury State University BORN 4/10/60, Philadelphia, PA NFL EXPERIENCE 10th Season

Then Steve Bisciotti, now in his 10th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired John Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL.

"I think leadership is difficult to define, but you can recognize leadership when you see it," Bisciotti says. "We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses - take some chances - to achieve great success. There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

Like many decisions Bisciotti has made, hiring Harbaugh proved to be the right one. The 2008 Ravens earned an 11-5 regular-season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers.

The passionate Bisciotti, who is 49 and the secondyoungest owner in the NFL (to Washington's Daniel Snyder - 45), bought a minority interest in the Ravens in 2000 from Art Modell and completed the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004. Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV championship team. Steve's influence in the NFL continues to rise – he currently is a member of two important ownership committees: Broadcasting and Digital Media.

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children alone.

After graduating from Salisbury (MD) State with a degree in liberal arts in 1982, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (he was 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology access to skilled companies temporary employees. Starting with two employees and two clients, Bisciotti and Davis produced $1.5 million in sales in the first year.

A young Steve Bisciotti with the late Johnny Unitas at Colts training camp.

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts' players if I could wear their helmets."

Sports Illustrated recently named Steve Bisciotti one of the Five Best Owners in the NFL:

"Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field."

Aerotek grew into the Allegis Group, which currently is the largest staffing firm (revenuewise) in the United States – fifth in the world. The company, which is based just outside Baltimore and has offices throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe, has over 10,000 employees and 80,000 high-end contract workers. Allegis Group, which, like Steve, does little self promotion or publicity, places employees in positions from engineers to cable installers, to computer programmers, to marketing specialists.

Until he bought the Ravens, Bisciotti's incredible business success was not well known to the general public on a national level. In fact, it wasn't even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm okay if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, quietly is dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities. Bisciotti recently (2007) purchased a collection of Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas memorabilia, which he immediately loaned to Baltimore's Sports Legends Museum. "It was important to keep those memories in Baltimore and for fans to get a chance to see them," Bisciotti explains.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing, boating and is devoted to University of Maryland athletics, especially the men's basketball team. He and his wife Renée (Foote) are the parents of two sons, Jason, who is pursuing a master's in business, and Jack, a senior in college. Renée helped design the interior and selected the furnishings at the Ravens' training complex. The family lives in Millersville, MD. Bisciotti is pronounced Bih-SHAH-tee.

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area that we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to, or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."

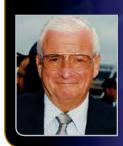

- Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."

former owner, NY Giants, 2002, deceased

- Wellington Mara

COLLEGE Air Force BORN 6/23/25, Brooklyn, NY NFL EXPERIENCE 44th Season

rt Modell - much like Steve Bisciotti -Lembodies the spirit of a true American success story. Both men have been described as bold, competitive, compassionate and highlyapproachable entrepreneurs - generally, a rare combination of qualities for men who have risen to their level of accomplishment.

In April of 2004, Art finalized the sale of the World Champion Baltimore Ravens to Bisciotti. Also in 2004, Art was a semifinalist for that year's Hall of Fame class. He was one of 15 finalists for the Canton NFL Hall of Fame in 2001 and a semifinalist for the classes of 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2009.

Modell purchased the Cleveland Browns for what was an unprecedented price of $4 million in 1961, and three decades later, in February of 1996, he brought NFL franchise back to Baltimore. For Art and his club, the move was not an easy one to make - and it was not easy for the team's fans to see their team go. Knowing this. Modell did not hesitate to leave the fans of Cleveland a legacy.

He announced that he would give the name "Browns" to Cleveland for a future team. He also left the team's colors (orange and brown) and the rich and storied 49-year history (1946-1995).

In his 43 seasons of full ownership of the Browns and the Ravens, more than half of Art's teams were in the playoffs. Modell won two NFL championships, 1964: 27-0 (over the Colts); and in 2000, 34-7 (vs. the NY Giants). Three other teams (1965, 1968 and 1969) played in NFL title games, and three more teams (1986, 1987) and 1989) lost memorable AFC Championship battles - all against John Elway and the Denver Broncos. Ten other teams earned playoff berths, while six more entered the season's final week with a chance to make the postseason.

Modell was the only elected NFL president in league history, serving a term from 1967-69. He chaired the negotiations for the first collective bargaining agreement with the players in 1968, leading a committee that included Vince Lombardi and Jim Finks, both NFL Hall of Famers. Modell may be most noted for his tenure as the NFL's broadcast chairman. The contracts he negotiated over a 31-year period (1962-93) set the standard for sports television.

Art's key career highlights include:

- Chairman of the Owners Labor Committee (1968), which successfully negotiated the NFL's first players' collective bargaining agreement.
- Served on the NFL-AFL Merger Committee, breaking the impasse for realignment of the two leagues by moving the Browns to the AFC.
- · Worked closely with then-Commissioner Pete Rozelle to establish NFL Films and became its first chairman.
  - In 1970, Art was an important negotiator with ABC to launch Monday Night Football volunteered and host the first game in Cleveland. (The Browns won, 31-21, over the NY Jets.)

Personal: In 1943, Modell joined the Air

ZZIE NEWSO

GENERAL MANAGER & EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT • 14TH SEASON

COLLEGE Alabama

BORN 3/16/56, Muscle Schoals, AL NFL EXPERIENCE 32nd Season

13 playing / 19 front office

zzie Newsome's legacy is unlike any the game has seen.

Though he has flourished at every point of his football career, it's unfair to say that Newsome has followed a successful path. That's because, in all reality, he blazed the trail - one on which success has actually followed him. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV championship team and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager.

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," Ravens head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where first stepped on the gridiron with the hope of playing for the University of Alabama. That dream turned into a reality when he went on to star for the Crimson Tide under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the history of the game. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a tight end until Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (Tony Gonzalez has since broken those records).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial nonplayer position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

1994, In Newsome was named Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that

"The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time."

In the Rayens' first-ever draft, Newsome and Co. tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (the fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 21 Pro Bowls since then, each player is considered a likely Hall of Famer. Ogden, who retired in June of 2008, could become the first Raven ever elected to Canton. Fittingly, he would join Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome has compiled consistently impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 13 drafts (1996-2008), Baltimore selected first-rounders who have earned a total of 39 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens have had a high pick, they haven't missed. Of the seven players chosen in the top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, Peter Boulware. LB CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis and LB Terrell Suggs) have earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore has picked in Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history, Newsome and his staff have drafted 11 players who have earned All-Star honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, who signed as a rookie free agent in 2002, Baltimore has produced 12 homegrown Pro Bowl players in just 13 NFL seasons.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field. Newsome has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with the scouts who work under him. The Ravens boast a methodical and disciplined draft process, one

Top 10 Thrives: The Ravens usually don't miss if they have a top 10 pick. Of the 7 players chosen in the top 10 by Baltimore, 5 have earned Pro Bowl honors.

Instead, they make their own list, and that means looking at every player on a collegiate roster. "We do a lot of cross-checking," says Ravens director of player personnel Eric DeCosta, a graduate of Newsome's "20/20 Club." "A number of us look at everyone, and then we have the area scouts look at certain players from other regions so we get multiple grades and opinions on all the players."

Newsome encourages all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that he wants to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, Ozzie believes the biggest strength of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"What sets us apart is that we have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, learning the way we do things," Newsome affirms. "And we have had some great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's not Ozzie. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens.

Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven way," Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among the scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many of its assistants move on to become head coaches on the collegiate and NFL levels: Jack Del Rio (Jaguars), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Rex Ryan (Jets), Jim Schwartz (Lions), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals).

"[Ravens] players believe, and that's the beauty of it," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "Ozzie brings in the right kind of players, and one thing we've always talked about is we don't want to coach effort. And that's the thing – we don't. [Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with. That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

Newsome's motivation and work ethic are also reasons many people respect him. One specific way that devotion shines through is in his everyday routine. If Ozzie's not in his office or out on the practice field, he can be found on the treadmill in the Ravens' weight room. Exercising daily (and often putting in two-a-days), Ozzie says his workouts are just another way he tracks the pulse of the team.

"By being around the coaches and players out at practice," Newsome states, "and being in that weight room around those players, I think I get a chance to build some things in my mind of how I'd like the makeup of our football team."

Here is a year-by-year look of Newsome's football career:

2008: Along with owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and several other front office executives, Newsome headed the search committee that hired first-year head coach John Harbaugh...Ravens posted an 11-5 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they fell to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers...Led by Newsome and Harbaugh, Baltimore produced 13 total victories, which set an NFL record for most wins by a first-year head coach (Harbaugh) and rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco)...Baltimore's stifling defense – ranked No. 2 in the NFL – set several franchise records, while the Ravens also had five players earn Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, ST Brendon Ayanbadejo, LB Terrell Suggs and FB Le'Ron McClain...Flacco, who became the first rookie QB ever to win two

RAVENS KEY FREE AGENT SIGNINGS

Not only have the Ravens' drafts been productive, but also their free agent signings have proven masterful. "We've been able to recruit and sign veterans who helped us win the Super Bowl and kept us competitive in other seasons," Newsome states.

playoff games, was named the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote).

2007: Despite producing a 5-11 record amidst an injury-marred season (Baltimore lost 77 games to starters), the Ravens sent four players to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed and RB Willis McGahee...Former free agent acquisition WR Derrick Mason (2005) set a Ravens' single-season record with 103 receptions...Ravens had six different rookies start a game, tying for the second most in the league.

2006: Baltimore produced the best record in franchise history with 13-3 mark before falling to Indianapolis in the Divisional Playoff, 15-6...Thanks to key offseason free agent additions like 2003 NFL co-MVP OB Steve McNair, four-time Pro Bowl DT Trevor Pryce and Pro Bowl special teamer Gary Stills, the Ravens improved in all three phases of the game...Additionally, the Ravens had five rookie draft picks start at least one contest, including first-rounder DT Haloti Ngata (16 games) and fifth-round pick S Dawan Landry

(14 games)...Both Ngata and Landry earned PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team honors and were integral pieces of Baltimore's No. 1-ranked defense...Ravens produced eight Pro Bowl players, including McNair...After the Ravens' 27-26 win at Tennessee, keyed by McNair's 376-yard, three-TD effort and Pryce's game-clinching FG block, Newsome was awarded the game ball for his efforts in building the 2006 team.

2005: A disappointing season ended with a 6-10 record...The Ravens lost 67 games to starting players with injuries, which were third most in the NFL...Pro Bowlers WR Derrick Mason and CB Samari Rolle were added for the 2005 campaign...T Jonathan Ogden made his ninth-straight Pro Bowl appearance...First-round draft choice WR Mark Clayton set rookie records with single-season franchise highs in catches (44) and yards (471).

2004: Baltimore, with key starters missing a total of 53 games, fell one game short of the playoffs, finishing with a 9-7 mark...S Ed Reed, the Ravens' first pick in 2002, was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year...Reed, LB Ray Lewis, CB Chris McAlister, T Jonathan Ogden and OLB Terrell Suggs all made the Pro Bowl...In June 2004, the Pro Football Writers Association honored Newsome with the Jack Horrigan Award for his cooperation and understanding of the media.

2003: The Ravens won their first division title with a 10-6 record...Baltimore hosted the Titans in the Wild Card game, but fell 20-17...Ravens sent an NFL-best (tied with Kansas City) eight players to the Pro Bowl, all of whom were originally drafted by Baltimore...In the '03 draft, Newsome and his staff picked LB Terrell Suggs (first round, 10th overall), who posted a Ravens' rookie-record 12 sacks and earned the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year...RB Jamal Lewis was named the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year for posting the second-most rushing yards in league history (2,066)...LB Ray Lewis earned his second (2000) NFL Defensive Player of the Year honor.

"But for those who study the draft, the Ravens are considered almost unmatched because of their acumen in the middle rounds, where the remaining players have greater shortcomings. Football Outsiders analyzed the Ravens' draft picks from 2001 through 2007 to determine the value of each pick, based on games started, compared with players at the same position chosen within 10 spots by other teams. During that time, the Ravens' picks had the best average value."

 The New York Times

2002: Newsome and his staff assembled the youngest team in NFL history...Most observers predicted the Ravens would win very few games, but Baltimore entered Week 15 with a 7-7 mark and a chance to be the AFC's top Wild Card playoff team... Two last-minute losses to Cleveland (14-13) and at Pittsburgh (34-31) gave Baltimore a 7-9 mark...That year's draft produced two immediate starters (S Ed Reed and DE Anthony Weaver) and standout returner Lamont Brightful...Reed led the Ravens with five INTs and made every NFL All-Rookie team.

2001: Picking late in each round after winning Super Bowl XXXV, Newsome and his staff continued to draft well by selecting TE Todd Heap (first round, 31st overall), who entering 2009 is the team's all-time leading receiver in every major category...Ravens finished the season with a 10-6 record and won at Miami (21-3) in the Wild Card game before falling in the Divisional Playoff at Pittsburgh (27-10)...Six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors.

2000: Newsome was voted the NFL's Executive of the Year...Finishing 12-4, the Ravens earned a Wild Card berth and won Super Bowl XXXV, 34-7, over the New York Giants...Baltimore's bruising defense, considered one of the best in league history, permitted just 960 rushing yards and 165 points – both NFL records in a 16-game season...The architects of the Ravens' Super Bowl championship team, Newsome and his staff hit gold with the selection of RB Jamal Lewis (the team's all-time leading rusher) with the fifth pick in the first round...As a rookie, Lewis set a then-Ravens' team record with 1,364 rushing yards...The Ravens sent five players to the Pro Bowl, including key free agents DT Sam

Adams and S Rod Woodson, whom Newsome signed to the team.

1999: The Rayens finished 8-8 in Brian Billick's first season as head coach and had five players named to the Pro Bowl...Newsome continued a hot hand at drafting by tabbing Arizona CB Chris McAlister (10th-overall pick), who went on to earn three Pro Bowls (2003-04 and 2006) while in Baltimore.

1998: Coordinated the selection of CB Duane Starks with the Ravens' first pick (10th overall)... Starks tied for the NFL's INT lead among rookies that year (equaling Charles Woodson's 5)... Stark then added five more thefts in his second season and led the Ravens with six picks in 2000, including a 49-yard INT for a TD against the Giants in Super Bowl XXXV.

1997: In his second draft, Newsome picked eventual four-time Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware, LB Jamie Sharper, S Kim Herring and C Jeff Mitchell – all four of whom became starters against the Giants in the Super Bowl XXXV victory...Boulware, the Ravens' all-time sacks leader (70), was the consensus choice for NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and also led the AFC in sacks (15) in 2001.

1996: Art Modell invited Newsome to join him as the Ravens' vice president of player personnel when the team moved from Cleveland to Baltimore...Under Newsome's direction, the '96 draft produced two perennial Pro Bowlers in T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis, who was MVP in Super Bowl XXXV and the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000 and 2003... Also earning the Pro Bowl as a returner was Jermaine Lewis (1998 and 2001), a fifth-rounder in that draft...Jermaine still holds many franchise career return records, including combined TDs (six) and combined yards (5,883).

1991-95: (with Cleveland) First position in the Browns' front office was as a special assignment scout...Two years later (1993), Newsome was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel...In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel...Although he continued to help on the field, Newsome provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire.

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH • 2ND SEASON

COLLEGE Miami (OH)

BORN 9/23/62, Perrysburg, OH

NFL EXPERIENCE 12th Season

During John Harbaugh's first season (2008) as the Ravens' head coach, he would often thank those in the organization who were instrumental in hiring him. He would say: "Thanks for this opportunity. This is the best. I love everything about this job. I won't let you down."

Certainly, he let no one down.

Taking over a team that produced a 5-11 mark in 2007, Harbaugh guided the '08 Ravens to the AFC Championship game where they lost a heart-stopping battle to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Steelers. He tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds for head coaches taking over a sub-.500 team when Baltimore earned an 11-5 regular season mark. The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record established a new league standard in this same category.

With the 13 total victories, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach playing a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco).

The Ravens did all this despite placing 19 players on Injured Reserve, the second most in the league. Baltimore lost 64 games to starters, according to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, 14 more than any other '08 playoff team.

Despite the first-season success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's not about me, it's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, the owner, Ozzie [Newsome] and the scouts. It's about the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best," Harbaugh says.

Under Harbaugh, the 2008 Ravens were balanced and effective:

- No. 1 in point differential with 141 (385 points scored to 244 allowed)
  - No. 2 in the NFL in overall defense
- · No. 1 in time of possession (33:10)
- No. 1 in average margin of victory (18.1 points)
- No. 3 in turnover ratio with a +13 take-away/ give-away margin
- · No. 1 in interceptions (26)
- · No. 1 in take-aways (34)
- · No. 4 in rushing yards per game (148.5 yard average)

Harbaugh, who established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches, is the third head coach in team history, following Ted Marchibroda (1996-98) and Brian Billick (1999-2007). Coach Harbaugh arrived in Baltimore with 24 years of pro and college coaching experience, including the previous 10 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. John was the Eagles' special team coach from 1998 through 2006 and headed Philly's secondary in 2007. He was originally hired by then-head coach Ray Rhodes and, subsequently, was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Prior to hiring John, the Ravens talked with over 30 people about the energetic Harbaugh, who had never been a head coach, nor an NFL offensive or defensive coordinator. "Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," stated team owner Steve Bisciotti. "We're totally confident we picked the right person."

Harbaugh's Philadelphia special teams were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, Philly's units finished in the top 10 in five of those seasons in the comprehensive special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, the Eagles were ranked No. 1 according to the Rick Gosselin composite (includes 22 kicking-game categories). Following the 2001 season, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Coach of the Year that season. In just four years (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams units from 29th to first in the league.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh's help, Akers became a three-time Pro Bowler. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the top two net punting averages (38.4 in '05 and 37.4 in '04) in Eagles history. Under coach Harbaugh, 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and RS Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8 punt return average in 2005.

Harbaugh, a graduate of Miami (Ohio) – where he played defensive back – is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA

John coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the college level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, the Pro Football Hall of Famer. John coached the TEs at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried.

While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, TEs, OLBs, RBs and was also the recruiting coordinator. Over eight years, Following the Ravens' 36-7 victory over Philadelphia (11/23/08), Pro Bowlers S Ed Reed (20), CB Samari Rolle (22), ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (51) and LB Ray Lewis (52) gave head coach John Harbaugh a Gatorade shower. Harbaugh spent 10 years (1998-2007) as an Eagles' coach.

John recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats, and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR avg. in '95) and the second-ranked returner (Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR avg. in '93). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the DBs coach/special teams coordinator under Cam Cameron, the Ravens' current offensive coordinator, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as DBs/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award. He earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan. John, who attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS, his wife, Ingrid, and their daughter, Alison, live in Reisterstown. MD.

BORN 11/24/55, Fairmont, MN
NFL EXPERIENCE 9th Season

Terry Rosburg, in his second year as the J Ravens' special teams coordinator, was awarded the assistant head coach title by head coach John Harbaugh in Jan. 2009. The 31-year coaching veteran guided a strong Ravens' special teams unit in 2008 that featured Pro Bowl special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo and exceptional punter Sam Koch, who had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Rosburg had built a successful NFL special teams resume both with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007) after a strong collegiate coaching career. In his year in Atlanta, the Rosburg-led Falcons' special teams units held a number of top 10 rankings. Also, under his leadership, the Browns' special teams units were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. Over a five-year span (2002-06), the Browns' special teams were ranked as the top NFL team in average ranking in the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as the special teams measuring stick.) In their first year with Rosburg as their mentor, Koch (2008), Atlanta's Michael Koenen (2007) and Cleveland's Dave Zastudil (2006) each tallied their career-best gross and net punting averages.

COLLEGE Abilene-Christian
BORN 9/16/54, Greenville, MS
NFL EXPERIENCE 22nd Season
9 playing / 13 coaching

Tilbert Montgomery joined the Ravens as their running backs coach in 2008. Montgomery has 22 years of NFL experience (nine as a player) and has built an impressive track record in his 13 years of coaching. Montgomery, who led the Ravens' run game to a No. 4 NFL ranking (148.5 ypg) in 2008, has earned a solid reputation for developing well-rounded RBs who excel as receivers and pass-protectors, adding more depth to their skills. Wilbert joined the Ravens after two seasons with the Detroit Lions (preceded by nine stellar seasons with the St. Louis Rams). Montgomery helped construct one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history, when the Rams boasted the NFL's No. 1 offense on the road to their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXIV (1999). From 1999-2001, St. Louis became the only NFL team to amass at least 500 points in three consecutive seasons (526 in '99, 540 in '00 and 503 in '01).

2008: (with Baltimore) Guided a Ravens' run game that improved from a No. 16 NFL ranking in 2007 to a No. 4 ranking in 2008...FB Le'Ron McClain earned his first Pro Bowl after a 902yard, 10-TD season...McClain also was honored as an AP All-Pro...He teamed with RBs Willis McGahee (671 rush yards) and rookie Ray Rice (454 yards) to become the only NFL team with a trio of RBs with over 450, 600 and 900 yards... The team's 20 rushing TDs set a franchise singleseason record (18 in 2003) and the Ravens' 592 rushing attempts were an NFL season high... The Ravens' run game was a key factor in the team leading the NFL in time of possession (33:10)...Baltimore's 132 first downs were also the league's second most.

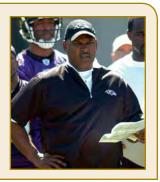

2006-07: (with Detroit) Injuries forced Montgomery to work with a total of five different starting RBs, including three in 2007. 2007: RBs Kevin Jones and T.J. Duckett each recorded 100-yard games. 2006: Helped Jones evolve into one of the NFL's best dual-threat RBs...He was fourth among RBs with 61 receptions before being placed on Injured Reserve in Week 13... Was also sixth in the NFC with 1,209 yards from scrimmage (689 rushing, 520 receiving).

1997-2005: (with St. Louis) During his tenure, Wilbert helped cultivate two of the league's elite RBs: Marshall Faulk and Steven Jackson. 2005: Coached Jackson to his first 1.000-vard season... Jackson finished with 1,046 yards and eight TDs on 254 attempts (4.1 avg.) while emerging as one of the bright young stars in the NFL under Montgomery's tutelage. 2004: Wilbert teamed Jackson, in his rookie year, with Faulk, to form a dynamic RB tandem, combining for nearly 1,500 rushing yards...Jackson finished third among NFL rookies with 673 rushing yards and four TDs on 134 attempts (5.0 avg.). 2003: Switched back to coaching RBs. 2000-02: Coached the Rams' TEs. 1999: Rams acquired a Pro Bowler in Faulk, who posted his first 1,000-yard season...Also compiled an NFL-record 2,429 vards from scrimmage and was named NFL Offensive Player of the Year...Rams boasted the NFL's No. 1 offense (fifth in rushing) on the way to their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXIV. 1997: Hired as RBs coach.

Roy Sommerhof joined the Ravens during their inaugural season in Baltimore (1996). He manages all aspects of

M&T Bank Stadium, including game day parking, security, custodial services, catering, medical services and stadium maintenance.

Since the stadium opened in 1998, Sommerhof has spearheaded the team's efforts to make it one of the best in the NFL, supervising improvements to both the suite and club levels, the installation of the spectacular LED boards, the addition of 15 new suites, and the design and installation of the M&T Bank Stadium signage.

Prior to joining the Ravens, the Baltimore native spent 16 years working in both ticket sales and stadium operations for the Orioles. He played a significant role in the planning, development and execution of the opening of Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992.

During his career, he has been involved with numerous special events, including hosting both Pope John Paul II at Oriole Park (1995) and the Queen of England at Memorial Stadium (1991), and the MLB All-Star Game at Oriole Park (1993).

He is also the president of the Gridiron Stadium Network, a consortium of 10 NFL facilities and one MLS facility that creates awareness and promotes the assests of its member stadiums. The GSN works to optimize opportunities to expand the use of the state-of-the art facilities for new sports, entertainment, public and private events. Through Roy's efforts and those of GSN, M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens hosted a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008 and hosted an international soccer match between Chelsea and AC Milan in July of 2009.

Sommerhof graduated from St. Thomas (Miami, FL) University in 1979 with a degree in sports administration. Roy, who serves on the board of Baltimore Youth Hockey, and his wife, Lina, have two sons, Drew (15) and Cole (7).

This morning, he showed his son the fine art of a good tackle. This afternoon, he'll call UNION MEMORIAL SPORTS MEDICINE for his sports injury.

Why? Because we're the official medical team of the Baltimore Ravens. And, even though Jim's not a pro, he can be sure that he'll be treated by a specialist with more than 25 years of experience. And since we're trusted by the Ravens, Jim knows we'll have him back in the game in no time.

Call 1-888-44SPORT for more information or log on to unionmemorial org/sports.

OWINGS MILLS TRAINING FACILITY

The Ravens moved into their 200,000-square-foot training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building features a brick and stone exterior. The field house is 90,000 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The headquarters' outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres, and the entire complex was completed in December of 2004. Almost all of the physical construction on the project was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

The facility includes a full-service kitchen, cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer wireless Internet capability.

Approximately 200 Ravens are housed at the headquarters in Owings Mills. The ticket office and stadium operations remain at M&T Bank Stadium.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us," executive vice president/general manager Ozzie Newsome stated. "Steve [Bisciotti] has delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."

The Ravens have three grass practice fields – one Kentucky Bluegrass and two Bermuda Grass – at their Owings Mills facility.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field with the same surface (Sportexe Turf) used at M&T Bank Stadium.

The Baltimore Ravens All Community Team Foundation is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in the Baltimore area, as well as other parts of the state of Maryland. The foundation focuses on programs that help youth, and in some cases their families, with various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring.

Recent projects include:

- The construction of a KaBOOM! playground for over 50 children at Baltimore's Good Samaritan Hospital
- · Financial support to St. Vincent's Center, Boys Hope Girls Hope and United Way
- The Plan in Motion project, which supports nonprofits that are fighting childhood obesity through physical fitness and nutrition education programs, with grants of up to $5,000

The team's charitable arm also partners with Ravens player foundations (see below) and the many staff members who volunteer with other nonprofit organizations, working to improve the quality of life for youth in our community.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

RAVENS ALL COMMUNITY TEAM

The Ravens All Community Team (ACT) brings the Ravens organization, players and members of the corporate community together to improve the quality of local communities. Through volunteerism and fundraising, the ACT supports Habitat for Humanity efforts, the Ravens Family Food Drive and the ACT Auction Party (Todd Heap, right), in addition to the annual participation in a season kickoff and postseason ceremony. In 2008, more than $500,000 was raised for charitable causes.

SPRING FOOTBALL FESTIVAL

Close to 30 Ravens players, including Ben Grubbs, Chris Carr (right), Domonique Foxworth and Steve Hauschka joined over 15,000 fans to celebrate the beginning of a new season for Ravens football. The festival included coverage of the NFL Draft, interactive on-field games, a locker room tour and autograph signings. With their SFF ticket, fans also received entrance to the Orioles vs. Rangers game that evening.

RAVENS FAMILY FOOD DRIVE

In November of 2008, the Ravens hosted the 13th annual Ravens Family Food & Funds Drive. The Radio City Rockettes assisted with the game-day collection, sponsored by Snapple and Von Paris Moving and Storage, on Nov. 23 vs. the Eagles. Along with donations accepted at Baltimore-area Shoppers stores, the more than 24,000 lbs. went to the Maryland Food Bank, which distributed donated items to soup kitchens, food pantries and emergency shelters throughout the holiday season.

GRIDIRON HALLOWEEN PARTY

Mark Clayton and Todd Heap annually co-host the Gridiron Halloween Party to benefit Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake. In 2008, teammates Joe Flacco (right), David Hale, Jameel McClain, Haruki Nakamura and Adam Terry, among others, dressed in costume and joined more than 500 supporters for the event which included food, a silent auction and plenty of fun and games. Close to $140,000 was raised for the Goodwill programs in 2008. The nine-year partnership between Goodwill and the Ravens has raised more than $1 million.

RAVENS ON THE MOVE

The What Moves U program, developed by the NFL and American Heart Association in 2006, is part of a movement to fight childhood obesity. Ravens What Moves U team representatives Mark Clayton, Brendon Ayanbadejo (right), Todd Heap, Justin Harper, Haruki Nakamura, Le'Ron McClain and Ravens cheerleaders visited four Baltimorearea middle schools to launch the 2008 campaign. Students charted their physical activity for six weeks, and top performers received the grand prize of lunch with players in the M&T Bank Stadium locker room.

SPREADING HOLIDAY CHEER

Derrick Mason (right), along with teammate Samari Rolle and former teammate Kyle Boller, donated $15,000 for his 4th Annual Holiday Helpers event in December of 2008. The players provided 60 Baltimore-area youth with Target gift certificates, and joined teammates and more than 40 Ravens cheerleaders as personal shoppers for the children.

"A PURPLE EVENING"

Each year, "A Purple Evening" celebrates the Ravens' female fans with a night of football and fun. In October of 2008, over 1,500 women filled M&T Bank Stadium and enjoyed instructional field drills, Football 101 sessions, fan forums, autograph sessions, locker room tours, appearances by Ravens cheerleaders and much more. More than 20 players attended the event, including Ray Lewis (right), Willis McGahee and Terrell Suggs.

CELEBRATING HISPANIC HERITAGE

To celebrate the 2008 Hispanic Heritage Month, the Ravens combined forces with the Worldwide Day of Play to host a Gatorade Junior Training Camp at Wolfe Street Academy on Sept. 23, 2008. International practice squad member from Mexico Salomon Solano, Haruki Nakamura, David Hale and Chris Chester (all right) promoted nutritional education and fitness, while engaging the predominantly Hispanic youth in the sport of football.

RAVENS GO KABOOM!

On June 8, 2009, more than 60 players and coaches, in addition to volunteers from the Ravens' organization and Baltimore community, joined forces with Good Samaritain Hospital to build an entire playground for its Child Development Center - all constructed in less than eight hours. The effort was made possible by the Ravens ACT Foundation and KaBOOM!, a national non-profit organization that envisions a great place to play within walking distance of every child in America.

The new playground, which was based on designs from the children, will provide a safe place to have fun for more than 50 children served by the center every day.

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 • RAVENS 17, BENGALS 10 Cincinnati (0-1) Baltimore (1-0)

Sunday, September 7, 2008 • 1:06 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore Weather: 78°, Sunny, Wind NW 7 mph • Attendance 70,978 • Time 3:09

Rookie QB Joe Flacco helped the Ravens to a 17-10 victory in his NFL debut. Baltimore's defense limited Cincinnati to only 154 total yards and 8 1st downs (2 from penalties) in John Harbaugh's 1st game as a head coach, Rookie QB Joe Flacco finished 15-of-29 for 129 yards, threw a key block on WR Mark Clayton's 42-yard TD run on a reverse that opened the scoring, and then Joe sprinted down the right sideline 38 yards for another TD in the 3rd guarter. Bengals QB Carson Palmer produced only 99 vards on a 10-of-25 showing. Palmer was sacked twice but hit many other times, and his 35.2 QB rating was a personal worst out of 61 career games. Flacco's 1st pass, a 9-yard completion to TE Todd Heap, was fumbled away. Both teams traded punts before CB Chris McAlister stole a tipped (S Ed Reed) Palmer pass on Baltimore's 17-yard line. Flacco then marched 78 vards, the last 42 coming on Clayton's surprise play around the left edge. K Matt Stover and Bengals K Shayne Graham matched FGs in the 1st half. Flacco then extended the lead to 17-3 when he rolled right on a naked bootleg and kept going 38 yards to paydirt. RB Ray Rice (64 yards on 22 carries) fumbled on a 4th-quarter drive, which Bengals CB Johnathan Joseph returned 65 yards for a TD. But Baltimore got a 4th-down stop and held the ball 13:17 in the 4th guarter, owning a 36:15 to 23:45 time advantage for the game.

GAME 2 · RAVENS 28, BROWNS 10

Cleveland (0-3) Baltimore (2-0)

Sunday, September 21, 2008 • 4:16 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore Weather: 77°, Sunny, Wind E 2 mph • Attendance 71,104 • Time 3:09

CLEVELAND BROWNS

The Ravens defeated the Cleveland Browns with a massive 2nd-half surge by the defense and a power running game. Baltimore turned 2 QB Derek Anderson INTs into TDs and grabbed a 3rd in the game's closing moments to seal the victory. K Matt Stover banged a 48yard FG off the right upright on the Ravens' 1st drive, and rookie QB Joe Flacco tossed his 1st-career INT on their 2nd series, which the Browns converted into an opening TD. Baltimore tried to answer with a flea-flicker, but a 53vard bomb to WR Derrick Mason ended up costing Flacco his 2nd pick. On the 3rd play of the period, LB Ray Lewis leveled Cleveland TE Kellen Winslow and dislodged the football, which landed in CB Chris McAlister's hands for an INT. McAlister's return to the 12-yard line set up FB Le'Ron McClain's 1-yard TD plunge. Less than 1 minute later, S Ed Reed pounced on another Anderson INT and raced 32 yards to the end zone. A botched punt on the next series gave the Ravens a short field on Cleveland's 35, which led to McClain's 2nd TD. Flacco only threw 5 passes in the 2nd half, while the Ravens held the ball for 13:18 in the 4th guarter. Baltimore's defense, which allowed just 169 net yards, totaled 5 sacks - 2 by LB Terrell Suggs - and capped the night with CB Samari Rolle's INT on the Browns' final offensive play.

GAME 3 · STEELERS 23, RAVENS 20 (OT) Baltimore (2-1) Pittsburgh (2-2)

Monday, September 29, 2008 • 8:40 PM ET • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh Weather: 65°, Fair, Wind SSW 3 mph • Attendance 64,038 • Time 3:36

The Ravens came back from 2 deficits, but it wasn't enough, as Baltimore fell 23-20 on Monday Night Football. Rookie QB Joe Flacco played his 1st road game and found TE Daniel Wilcox for his 1st-career passing TD. The Steelers posted 2 TDs within 15 seconds in the 3rd quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger hit WR Santonio Holmes with a short pass over the middle, and Holmes escaped tackles from CB Chris McAlister and S Ed Reed en route to paydirt. On the next play from scrimmage, Flacco was sacked from behind by LB James Harrison, who knocked the ball away. LB LaMarr Woodley scooped up the fumble and went 7 yards for a TD. Pittsburgh made it 20-13 on K Jeff Reed's 19-yard FG in the 4th after Steelers RB Mewelde Moore was stuffed at the 1-yard line. Then, Flacco went to work late in the 4th quarter, connecting with WR Derrick Mason from 15, 10 and 35 yards, FB Le'Ron McClain capped the scoring march from 2 yards out. The Ravens won the OT coin toss, but 2 penalties and 1 sack forced P Sam Koch to punt out of his own end zone. That allowed Pittsburgh to start from its own 43-yard line, gain a 1st down and prepare for Reed's 46-yard game-winner. The Ravens harassed Roethlisberger for 3 sacks, while the Steelers felled Flacco 5 times.

Titans QB Kerry Collins directed a game-winning TD drive that ended with 1:56 left in the game. Collins was 10-of-20 for only 91 yards and 2 INTs through 3 quarters. And when Collins got the ball with 6:07 remaining, even he was forced into 3 straight incomplete passes. But LB Terrell Suggs was flagged for roughing the passer - a call questioned both by the Ravens and the media after the game - during the 3rd-down attempt. The penalty garnered a new set of downs. Suggs' flag came after Titans LT Michael Roos had a 5-yard false start, but since play continued after the whistle, the 15-yard penalty could still be considered. K Matt Stover opened the scoring with a 38-yard boot to cap Baltimore's opening drive. The Ravens traveled 46 yards in 11 plays after DT Haloti Ngata tipped Collins' 3rd pass of the game, which fell to DT Justin Bannan, Titans K Rob Bironas then answered when QB Joe Flacco was intercepted in Baltimore territory midway through the 2nd quarter (the 2nd of 4 Tennessee drives that began on the Ravens' side of the field). Coming out of the break, Flacco mounted his best series, going 71 yards in 11 plays. Flacco hit WR Demetrius Williams for a 22-yard connection. FB Le'Ron McClain capped the march with a 1-yard plunge. Bironas thinned the margin to 10-6 with his 26-yard FG 2:11 into the 4th quarter. After Collins' game-winning 11yard TD pass to TE Alge Crumpler, Flacco tossed his 2nd INT with 1:16 remaining.

QB Peyton Manning threw 3 TD passes in the 1st half to build a 24-0 lead over the Ravens who were missing starting S Dawan Landry (neck), CB Samari Rolle (neck/ shoulder), plus 3rd CB Fabian Washington (shoulder), On his 7th snap of the day, Manning unleashed a 67-yard TD bomb to Pro Bowl WR Marvin Harrison, who sped past CB Chris McAlister down the right sideline. The Ravens answered with a 3-and-out before Manning hit his 2nd Pro Bowl WR, Reggie Wayne, with a 22-yard TD strike. Manning added a 5-vard TD dart to Harrison 1:48 before halftime to cap a 52-yard drive. FB Le'Ron McClain lost a 1st-quarter fumble in Baltimore territory that led to a 37yard FG from K Adam Vinatieri. Indianapolis' lead stretched to 31 when Manning came out of halftime to direct an 11play, 80-yard scoring drive. He connected with Wayne through the hands of CB Frank Walker for 34 yards, and RB Dominic Rhodes plunged 1 yard for the TD. BALTIMORE BAVENS

Rookie QB Joe Flacco posted a passer rating of 120.0, a personal best, leading Baltimore to a 27-13 victory. Both teams traded FGs to open the scoring before LB Terrell Suggs pounced in front of RB Patrick Cobbs to pick off Miami QB Chad Pennington. With nothing but daylight in front of him, Suggs raced 44 yards down the right sideline to paydirt. The Dolphins followed with another FG before Baltimore's offense came alive. Flacco went 6-of-8 for 68 yards on the next series, capping it with an 11-yard TD pass to WR Derrick Mason. The grab was a do-over from the previous play, when Miami CB Will Allen dropped a sure INT at the goal line. With a 17-6 lead heading into halftime, the Ravens cut through a run defense that entered the weekend only allowing 89.0 yards on the ground (8th in the NFL). RB Willis McGahee gained 80 yards in the 2nd half, adding a bruising 5-yard TD run - this despite not having starting RT Adam Terry (with a knee injury) and losing RG Marshal Yanda for the season to torn knee ligaments, the week prior. The Dolphins closed within 7 points after Pennington hit rookie WR Davone Bess for a 7-yard score, but Baltimore bounced back with a 9-play scoring drive in the final period. When McGahee plowed through the Dolphins for his 4th-quarter TD, Baltimore had comfortably stopped a 7-game road losing streak.

Oakland (2-5) Baltimore (4-3)

Sunday, October 26, 2008 • 1:02 PM EDT • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore Weather: 65°, Sunny, Wind SW 6 mph • Attendance 71,254 • Time 3:05

Ravens LB Terrell Suggs sacked QB JaMarcus Russell the 1st time he dropped back to pass, 1 of 4 Ravens sacks, setting the tone for the game. On the next attempt, rookie LB Jameel McClain logged a safety on Russell, QB Joe Flacco's most exciting connection might have been a 43yard catch from QB Troy Smith in the 3rd guarter that led to a 30-yard FG from K Matt Stover. Following McClain's safety, Baltimore had 3 2nd-quarter scoring drives, started by S Jim Leonhard's 46-yard PR with around 2 minutes left in the 1st. Five plays later, RB Willis McGahee scored a 1-vard TD for a 9-0 lead, McGahee, followed 2 consecutive blocks from 340-pound DT Haloti Ngata. CB Frank Walker's INT at the Ravens' 3-yard line got the ball back. From his own 30, Flacco navigated pressure before launching a 70-yard TD to WR Demetrius Williams. Then, the Ravens forced a 3-and-out that set up a 61-vard drive to a 38-vard FG 15 seconds later to give the Ravens a 19-0 halftime advantage. Oakland finally crossed midfield on its 1st drive after the break, Russell found WR Chaz Schilens for 60 yards, setting up a 22-yard FG. The Ravens struck back with Flacco's grab and the Stover FG. Both Flacco and Smith lined up in the backfield, and after Flacco pitched to Smith, he sprinted left past LB Ricky Brown. Smith tossed a 43-yarder into Flacco's extended arms.

GAME 8 • RAVENS 37, BROWNS 27

Baltimore (5-3) Cleveland (3-5)

Sunday, November 2, 2008 • 1:02 PM EST • Cleveland Browns Stadium • Cleveland Weather: 55°, Sunny, Wind SE 8-16 mph • Attendance 73,078 • Time 3:20

The Ravens' 24-point rally to bring the team back from a 14-point deficit began after Cleveland posted 2 TDs on its initial 2 series of the 3rd guarter to take a 27-13 lead. Browns QB Derek Anderson found WR Braylon Edwards for a 28-yard TD, and then returned after a Ravens' 3-and-out to engineer an 8-play, 72-yard march that ended with RB Jason Wright's diving 7-yard TD. QB Joe Flacco responded out of the no-huddle, moving 79 yards in 11 plays to Cleveland's 1, where FB Le'Ron McClain ran in for a TD. Baltimore's defense forced a 3-and-out as the 3rd quarter expired, allowing Flacco to connect with WR Derrick Mason from 28 yards to even the score at 27. Rookie RB Ray Rice - 154 yards on 21 carries (7.1vard average) - then broke a 60-yard run, setting up Matt Stover's 22-yard FG. The ground game was aided by Mason, 136 yards on 9 catches, and WR Mark Clayton, 4 grabs for 87 yards. Flacco threw no INTs for the 3rd straight week. The Ravens jumped to a 10-0 lead with a 41-yard FG on their opening drive, and Flacco followed that with a 47-yard strike to Clayton. WR Joshua Cribbs took the ensuing KO 92 yards to paydirt. Stover and Browns K Phil Dawson traded FGs before Dawson tied the score at 13 with another boot with 3 seconds left in the 1st half. The Browns still had a chance in the 4th until Suggs picked off Anderson and raced 42 yards for a TD. For the 27th consecutive game, the Ravens' "D" also did not allow a 100-yard rusher.

Baltimore (6-3) Houston (3-6)

Sunday, November 9, 2008 • 12:02 PM CST • Reliant Stadium • Houston Weather: 69°, Sunny, Wind ESE 11 mph • Attendance 70,552 • Time 3:06

Baltimore posted 22 4th-quarter points, and Texans QB Sage Rosenfels was intercepted 4 times, including 2 from LB Ray Lewis. It marked the 4th consecutive game that the Ravens posted at least 27 points, a team record. The Ravens scored only 12 1st-half points, but poured it on in the 2nd half. Out of the break, the Ravens ran 9 times on a drive culminating in RB Willis McGahee's 1-yard TD behind 345-pound DT Haloti Ngata. On the ensuing series, Ngata pressured Rosenfels, who threw directly to Lewis. K Matt Stover then missed a 50-vard FG, setting up a 60vard catch and run to Houston WR Kevin Walter 1 snap later, which cut the Ravens' lead to 19-13. Flacco and the Ravens' offense responded with a 78-yard march. Just 1 minute into the final period, Flacco hit a stumbling TE Todd Heap for a score. It was a tight game until the Ravens' stellar 2nd half, Following a 43-vard TD from Flacco to WR Yamon Figurs on Baltimore's 2nd drive of the game, the Texans pushed to Baltimore's 1-yard line. On 1st down, Rosenfels looked for TE Owen Daniels in the end zone. but Ngata tipped the pass to himself for an INT. Texans LT Duane Brown was also called for holding in the end zone on LB Terrell Suggs, which qualified as a safety, Baltimore K Steven Hauschka added a 54-yard boot, marking the 2nd-longest FG in franchise history.

GAME 10 · GIANTS 30, RAVENS 10

Baltimore (6-4) New York (9-1)

Sunday, November 16, 2008 • 1:02 PM EST • Giants Stadium • East Rutherford Weather: 49°, Cloudy, Wind WNW 19 mph • Attendance 78,849 • Time 2:57

In a matchup of the NFL's top rushing offense and run defense, the Ravens gave way. New York rushed for 207 total yards, the most allowed all season by a Baltimore unit that went into the contest giving up an average of 65.4 yards per game. On his 1st run of the day, the 265-pound RB Brandon Jacobs cut off the left side and sprinted 36 yards. The play set the stage for Jacobs' ensuing 1-yard TD. The Ravens had a chance to answer, but K Matt Stover's 32-yard FG was blocked by DT Fred Robbins. Jacobs then popped off a 15-yard run before crossing the goal line from 1 vard out, After Jacobs' 2nd TD, Baltimore P Sam Koch pinned the Giants at their own 10-yard line. But QB Eli Manning marched New York 90 yards in 12 plays, finding TE Darcy Johnson for a 1-yard TD pass. The Ravens finally scored as Stover split the uprights with a 38-yard FG. The Giants moved the ball back into the red zone, but LB Ray Lewis negated the drive with an INT. The Ravens' defense tightened to hold New York to only 4 rushing yards in the 3rd quarter. Baltimore even closed the margin to 20-10 with a 10-yard TD pass to FB Le'Ron McClain midway through the period. But following a Giants' punt, CB Aaron Ross corralled a deflection off Derrick Mason and raced untouched 50 yards to paydirt, snapping Joe Flacco's 4-game streak of INT-free football. New York later posted a 77-yard run from Bradshaw that set up K Lawrence Tynes' 19-yard FG, making the final outcome 30-10.

Sunday, November 23, 2008 • 1:02 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore Weather: 39°, Sunny, Wind WSW 5 mph • Attendance 71,379 • Time 3:27

The Ravens' defense notched 4 INTs and 1 FR from Eagles QBs Donovan McNabb and Kevin Kolb. McNabb tossed 2 INTs and lost a fumble before he was removed at halftime after posting a 13.2 passer rating. Kolb completed 10 of 23 for 73 yards and a 15.3 rating in the 2nd half. LB Jameel McClain blocked a punt in the end zone for a safety giving the Ravens a 12-7 lead midway through the 3rd quarter. CB Samari Rolle's INT at Baltimore's 49-yard line set up Matt Stover's 42-yard FG 3 seconds into the 4th quarter, WR Mark Clayton hauled in a short slant from QB Joe Flacco and raced 53 yards for a TD. S Ed Reed put the game out of reach when he picked off Kolb and sprinted an NFL-record 107 yards for a TD. Baltimore didn't open the scoring until the 3:05 mark of the 2nd quarter, when K Matt Stover hit a 44-yard FG. By that time, Baltimore had already picked off McNabb once and pounced on a McNabb fumble both forced and recovered by LB Jarret Johnson. The Ravens didn't convert either of the 1st 2 Eagles turnovers into points, but after the 3rd TO, Flacco delivered a 1-yard TD pass to TE Daniel Wilcox. The Eagles answered with S Quintin Demps' 100-yard KOR-TD. The 10-7 battle continued into the 3rd guarter, when Baltimore backed the Eagles deep into their own territory and McClain got his 2nd-career safety. Then the floodgates opened. Flacco finished with a 95.5 QB rating.

BALTIMORE BAVENS

Baltimore cruised to a 34-3 victory at Paul Brown Stadium by stomping out the Cincinnati Bengals for the Ravens' 6th win in the past 7 contests. This game may have been their most dominating performance. The Ravens hammered Cincinnati's defense with FB Le'Ron McClain, who opened downfield opportunities for QB Joe Flacco. With the offense clicking, Baltimore amassed 451 yards, only 28 less than a franchise record. WR Mark Clayton was a major factor in that production. Clayton caught 5 passes for 164 yards (the 3rd-best total in team history), hauled in 1 of those catches for a 70-yard TD, and even threw a 32-yard scoring strike to WR Derrick Mason. His TD grab and toss came within 2:19 of each other in the 3rd guarter, pushing the margin to 27-3 in a flash. S Jim Leonhard capped the outing when he picked off QB Jordan Palmer and ran 35 yards for a TD late in the 4th quarter. Only 2 of Cincinnati's 1st 10 drives lasted more than 3 plays. The Bengals tallied only 155 yards, 89 of which came on a march just before halftime that was capped with a 21-yard FG from K Shayne Graham. As the Bengals' only points, it was the 2nd consecutive week that the Ravens' "D" did not give up a TD. Baltimore K Matt Stover opened the scoring with 27- and 21-yard FGs, which were followed by a 4-yard TD from Flacco to TE Todd Heap. The 9-play scoring drive was keyed by a 33-yard reception by Clayton. The Ravens kept possession for 38:58, compared to Cincinnati's 21:02.

GAME 13 · RAVENS 24, REDSKINS 10

Washington (7-6) Baltimore (9-4)

Sunday, December 7, 2008 • 8:23 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore Weather: 29°, Clear, Cold, Wind WNW 20 mph • Attendance 71,438 • Time 3:08

Baltimore ground out a 12-play, 83-yard drive late in the 4th quarter that had 10 bruising runs from 260-pound FB Le'Ron McClain en route to QB Joe Flacco's clinching 28-yard TD pass to WR Derrick Mason. The Ravens jumped out to a 2-TD lead in the 1st quarter because of 2 spectacular plays from S Ed Reed. The Pro Bowler snared an INT on the opening series to set up an 8-yard TD run for McClain, and then Reed returned a fumble 22 yards to the end zone 2:29 after that. On the 3rd play of the night, Reed grabbed a fluttering throw from Redskins QB Jason Campbell around midfield after the ball was tipped by LB Terrell Suggs. McClain rumbled across the goal line for a TD 5 plays later. Both teams traded punts before Reed stripped RB Clinton Portis on an 11-yard rush and scored with the FR, his 11th-career TD. K Matt Stover extended the lead to 17-0 with a 32-yard FG, but the Redskins then capitalized on 2 Ravens turnovers. Flacco tossed his 1st INT in 3 weeks at the Baltimore 26-yard line just before the 4th quarter, leading to K Shaun Suisham's 43-yard FG. On the Ravens' next series, RB Willis McGahee - who left the game in the 4th with a shoulder stinger and mild concussion - lost a fumble on Baltimore's 43-yard line. Campbell then found WR Antwaan Randle El for a 5-yard TD, trimming the margin to 7. But the Ravens responded, ruggedly moving downfield on McClain's legs and capping their night at the 3:35 mark with Flacco's TD throw to Mason.

Pittsburgh (11-3) Baltimore (9-5)

Sunday, December 14, 2008 • 4:15 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore Weather: 45°, Mostly Cloudy, Wind SSE 14 mph • Attendance 71,502 • Time 3:11

In an epic clash of the NFL's top 2 defenses, it was the Pittsburgh Steelers' offense that captured a victory over the Ravens. Pittsburgh drove 92 yards in 12 plays to score a controversial winning TD with 43 seconds left in the game. WR Santonio Holmes hauled in a 4-yard scoring pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to cap the Steelers' final march. Facing 3rd-and-goal on Baltimore's 4-yard line, Roethlisberger bought time with his legs before finding Holmes, who had 2 feet in the end zone but seemed to grasp the ball outside of it as S Ed Reed tackled him to the 1. It was originally ruled that Holmes did not score, but after a booth review, the call was reversed. K Matt Stover booted 3 FGs for the Ravens, while Pittsburgh came away with 2 FGs before the game's only TD. The Ravens were clinging to a 9-3 lead when LB Terrell Suggs sacked Roethlisberger on the 1st play of the 4th quarter and jarred the ball loose into the hands of DT Brandon McKinney. But Baltimore could not convert the TO into points and had to punt after a 3-and-out. The Steelers then drove to the Rayens' 12 with the help of a 30-vard completion to Hines Ward, setting up a FG from K Jeff Reed. The Ravens were forced to punt again when QB Joe Flacco was sacked by LB Lawrence Timmons and fumbled. The play had started on Pittsburgh's 27-yard line, but the Ravens were pushed out of Stover's range when RB Willis McGahee recovered the ball at the 41. Pittsburgh then took possession on its own 8 and rallied for the TD.

Baltimore (10-5) Dallas (9-6)

Saturday, December 20, 2008 • 7:15 PM CST • Texas Stadium • Dallas Weather: 45°, No wind • Attendance 63,800 • Time 3:24

Baltimore defeated the Dallas Cowboys to spoil the celebration at the final game at Texas Stadium. Dallas closed to within 2 points twice in the 4th quarter, but the Ravens broke a pair of long TD runs to extend their lead both times. RB Willis McGahee burst up the middle to sprint 77 yards for a TD at the 3:32 mark, countering a 7-yard TD strike from QB Tony Romo to WR Terrell Owens. Then, after Romo answered McGahee with a 21-yard TD pass to TE Jason Witten, the Ravens' very next offensive play saw FB Le'Ron McClain bounce off the right side of the OL for an 82-yard TD scamper. McClain's run was the longest ever for an opponent at the Cowboys' venerable home. The Ravens had their share of early troubles, however. QB Joe Flacco, who finished with a 96.9 passer rating, was sacked 5 times in the 1st half, losing a fumble on his initial drive of the game when he was sack-stripped by LB DeMarcus Ware. The Cowboys converted the positive field position to open the scoring on a RB Tashard Choice TD plunge. Baltimore kept close with 2 FGs from K Matt Stover, and then took a 9-7 lead when Stover hit from 37 yards. The score was set up by S Ed Reed's 2nd INT (7th of the season) and return to midfield. A 13-yard TD pass from Flacco to WR Derrick Mason in the 3rd guarter put the Ravens ahead 16-7. The courageous Mason left the game on 3 separate occasions because of a painful shoulder injury and couldn't even lift his left arm in celebration.

Jacksonville (5-11) Baltimore (11-5)

Sunday, December 28, 2008 • 4:16 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore Weather: 62°, Cloudy, Wind WSW 18 mph • Attendance 71,366 • Time 2:48

With a victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Ravens clinched the 6th AFC playoff spot. The Jaguars held a brief 7-3 lead in the 1st quarter, but with postseason hopes at stake, it was all Ravens from there. Baltimore mounted 3 long scoring drives in the 2nd quarter. During that gamechanging outburst, rookie QB Joe Flacco completed 12 of 13, setting up 2 TD runs from FB Le'Ron McClain and another by RB Willis McGahee. Jaguars QB David Garrard answered K Matt Stover's opening 32-yard FG with a TD pass to RB Alvin Pearman. But the Ravens went no-huddle after Pearman scored, and Flacco completed 6 of 7 passes for 69 yards to set up McClain's 5-yard rumble. McClain's 2nd TD, a 1-yard plunge, came following a 47-yard bomb from Flacco to WR Mark Clayton. In between, McGahee added a 13-yard TD, capping a 77-yard march where Flacco found Derrick Mason from 39 yards and then on a 16-yard flea flicker. Jacksonville marched to Baltimore's 20-yard line after the break, but turned the ball over on downs when Garrard misfired on a 4th-and-4 pass to WR Dennis Northcutt, Baltimore then added a 41-vard FG from Stover. The Jaguars never made it to Ravens territory again until their last drive. Even then, a shot to the end zone was intercepted by S Ed Reed, his 2nd of the game and NFL-best 9th of the season. Baltimore's defensive effort was also aided by Ray Lewis' 2 FRs. Mason posted 6 receptions for 77 yards, going over 10,000 yards for his career (10,061).

The Ravens forced 5 turnovers in their 27-9 win over the Miami Dolphins. Miami tied an NFL record with only 13 giveaways in 2008, but that didn't matter when S Ed Reed lined up across from QB Chad Pennington. Reed snared 2 INTs from Pennington, who only threw 7 INTs in the regular season. Reed took the 1st 64 yards for a TD, the 12th score of his career. Both teams traded FGs before the INTs began accumulating. At 8:56 in the 2nd quarter, S Jim Leonhard returned the 1st theft of the day 20 yards to Miami's 45-yard line, but the Ravens punted after a 3-and-out. On the following series, Reed ran under a rainbow from Pennington and weaved 64 yards for the TD. Baltimore added another K Matt Stover FG (31 yards) before the 1st half ended. CB Fabian Washington posted the 3rd INT just after halftime, which resulted in another Ravens 3-and-out. But DT Marques Douglas stripped RB Patrick Cobbs to end the Dolphins' ensuing drive, and LB Terrell Suggs recovered on Miami's 19-yard line. Four plays later, FB Le'Ron McClain, scored from 8 yards out. Reed continued to terrorize Pennington, who drove to Baltimore's 15-yard line when Reed grabbed his 2nd INT at the 8-yard line in the 3rd. The Dolphins closed the margin with a 5-play drive culminating in a TD pass to RB Ronnie Brown, but it wasn't enough to overcome the deficit. The Ravens' offense put the margin out of reach when a 71-yard drive ended with a 5-yard scoring run from QB Joe Flacco.

Baltimore (13-5) Tennessee (13-4)

Saturday, January 10, 2009 • 3:33 PM CST • LP Field • Nashville Weather: 53°, Cloudy, Wind NNW 11 mph • Attendance 69,143 • Time 3:07

Two fierce defenses were featured in this hard-fought battle. It wasn't until K Matt Stover's 43-yard FG with 53 seconds remaining that the outcome was decided. To get there, QB Joe Flacco, who became the NFL's 1st rookie signal caller to win 2 playoff games, led a 9-play, 51-yard drive to set up the clinching kick. On their 1st drive, Titans Pro Bowl RB Chris Johnson took a short pass from Kerry Collins in the left flat, and then ripped off a 28-yard gain. Johnson then finished the march with an 8-yard TD run. On the ensuing series, Flacco hit WR Derrick Mason for a 48-yard TD bomb. Just before the 1st half ended, Tennessee marched to the Ravens' 22-yard line, but RB LenDale White was stripped by LB Jarret Johnson, and the Ravens recovered. The Titans tried a 51-yard FG on 4th down instead of punting in the 3rd, and K Rob Bironas pushed it WL. In the 4th, Stover hit a 21-yard FG to make it 10-7. Later, Titans TE Alge Crumpler fumbled on the Ravens' 6-yard line. Tennessee tied the game again after stopping the Ravens and taking advantage of field position for Bironas' 27-yard FG. The Ravens made the most of their last possession. Flacco completed a 23-yard pass to TE Todd Heap for a critical 3rd-and-2 conversion. RB Willis McGahee then made an 11-yard run, and Flacco found WR Mark Clayton for 8 yards to pull within Stover's range. With less than 1:00 remaining, Collins completed 1 pass (5 yards to Brandon Jones), but his last 3 attempts fell to the turf.

It was a battle of the NFL's top 2 defenses, and Baltimore fought through multiple injuries. S Daren Stone suffered a concussion on the opening kickoff, but he returned in the 2nd half. CB Frank Walker (dislocated shoulder) and CB Corey Ivy, who was blindsided by a downfield block, both left for brief moments before returning. However, RB Willis McGahee, who rushed for a game-high 60 yards and 2 TDs on 20 carries, was carted off in the 4th guarter because of a helmet-to-helmet shot from S Ryan Clark. After not committing a TO in his 1st 2 playoff games, QB Joe Flacco threw 3 INTs and lost a fumble. Pittsburgh took a 13-0 lead on 2 K Jeff Reed FGs and a 65-yard TD pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Santonio Holmes. S Jim Leonhard returned a punt 45 yards to the Steelers' 17, which - along with a pass interference call in the end zone - set up McGahee's 3-yard TD run in the 2nd quarter. After another Reed FG, McGahee pulled the Ravens within 2 points (16-14 in the 4th quarter) with his 2nd TD. A botched punt from Pittsburgh's P Mitch Berger gave Baltimore the ball at midfield, and another end zone pass interference call led to McGahee's 1-yard TD run. On their ensuing series, the Ravens drove for a go-ahead score, but S Troy Polamalu jumped in front of WR Derrick Mason with 4:24 left and raced 40 yards to paydirt with Flacco's 2nd INT. His last INT - on an attempt over the middle to RB Ray Rice - sealed the outcome with 1:11 remaining.

A LOOK BACK 🥯 SUPER BOWL XXXV

The young and brashBaltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ending the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown. Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the N.Y. Giants, 34-7.

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a Super Bowl record with four INTs, and they were only the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl. Most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday presented phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Kevin Byrne and Francine Lubera of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season (above), published in July of 2001.

ent QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. - 12/28 With a Wild Card playoff spot on the line, Baltimore closed out the regular season with a 9-2 record to earn a No. 6 seed in the postseason. The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie standard.

John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

Baltimore's defense concluded the season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), they set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (four) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high nine INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

The all-time alphabetical roster (above) lists the last-known jersey number worn by a player. The above roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR, PUP list, et al. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears on this list.

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who has worn both 73 and 97 jerseys.

Ravens DT Haloti Ngata returns an INT during his rookie year (2006). Entering 2009, he has 3 picks in his career.

ABBREVIATION CHART

To the media: In an effort to make the Baltimore Ravens Fan and Media Guide reader friendly, "to green" the book, to lessen the total weight of the book and reduce the number of pages, we adopted some non-traditional methods. We abbreviated certain football terms and used numbers in our player bios and charts instead of spelling out numerical words, including numbers 1-9.

M&T Bank Stadium – without a doubt – is where NFL excitement begins on any given Sunday. Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since winning the Super Bowl in 2000, the Ravens have presented a daunting home record for opponents, 52-20, entering 2009.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as the crowning jewel of NFL sports facilities. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including state-of-the-art SMARTVISION video screens. Combined with exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 71,008, this impressive structure is the home of the Ravens and draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 128 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park and the Ravens' home at Camden Yards. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds, and the Ravens.

QUICK STADIUM FACTS

- M&T Bank Stadium is 185 ft. high, 35 ft. above Oriole Park
- The two SMARTVISION video screens, located in each end zone, generate 16 million colors
- M&T Bank Stadium has featured other events since it opened in 1998:
  - ACC Lacrosse Tournaments 2005-06
  - Army-Navy Football 2000, 2007

  - HFStivals 1998, 2005

VIDEO SCREENS:

- The two SMARTVISION video screens, located in each end zone, measuring 100 ft. x 24 ft., are two of the largest permanent computer-operated video display screens in the NFL.
- A staff of 25-plus people operate the screens from a central control room located on the press level. Some of the dynamic features of the screens include, arguably, the best graphics and game action video in the league, plus network pregame shows, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.
- Each screen can be divided into as many as 16 different pictures, augmented by over 1,894 custom-built speakers that produce crystalquality sound and dynamic, breathtaking special effects.
- Providing even more information to fans are LED boards (800 linear feet) surrounding the field.

SIGHTLINES:

- Front row seating in the lower level is six feet above the playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.
- The distinctive upper seating area includes open notches in each corner of the stadium, allowing scenic views of Baltimore.

SEATING:

- With a seating capacity of 71,008, M&T Bank Stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball ballpark to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park's size. Seating for the disabled is located on every level.
- The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.
- Each of the 128 suites at M&T Bank Stadium hold between 20-24 people and features three televisions, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal waitstaff service. Many other amenities are available to suite holders.

AMENITIES:

- Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Seven public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic.
- There are 55 concessions stands in the upper, lower and club levels with delicious game day fare, including some of Baltimore's signature favorites
- Club Level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

M&T BANK STADIUM HIGHLIGHTS

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE:

- Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.
- Fans can easily access M&T Bank Stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside of Gate B.
- Parking in stadium lots, managed by Central Parking Systems, (410) 347-9330, is limited to permit holders, but city lots are also available for game-day parking, just a short walk away.
- Tailgating fans are welcomed at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans may tailgate in all of the lots in the complex. For complete Tailgate Lot parking information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-RAVE (7283).
- In October of 2002, following the passing of legendary Colts' quarterback Johnny Unitas, the Ravens named the area near Gate A Unitas Plaza. A statue sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every home game.

• Unitas Plaza is a great picture-taking area for Baltimoreans and vacationers. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens' football fans who have supported the team that brought Baltimore and the State of Maryland the NFL World Championship with Super Bowl XXXV.

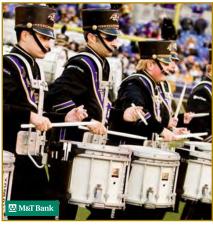

Ravens Team Stores offer fans all of the latest Ravens merchandise (modeled by DT Dwan Edwards and his family) and are conveniently located throughout M&T Bank Stadium. ATMs are available on the club, upper and lower concourses.

MASCOT POE

The game-day experience at M&T Bank Stadium is designed to offer Ravens fans a festive and colorful atmosphere providing a variety of entertainment and excitement. And it wouldn't be complete without the Ravens' mischievous mascot, Poe. If you would like to book Poe to fly into your next function, please visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS

Over 230 musicians and flagline performers comprise Baltimore's Marching Ravens. John Ziemann directed the Colts' Marching Band, which evolved into the current Ravens' musical performers. BMR is deeply involved in charitable causes and raises funds to help support the Baltimore community. For information on scheduling these dynamic performers, call John Ziemann at (410) 557-8335. For more information, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/band.

RAVENS CHEERLEADERS

The Ravens' cheerleading squad has 21 members on the dance team and 36 members on the stunt team. The cheerleading squad is the only NFL team with both a dance and stunt team. Ravens cheerleaders are in our community helping the team raise funds for charities and foundations in the Baltimore area. Scheduling an appearance for your next event is easy: visit www.baltimoreravens.com/cheerleaders.

LIVE RAVENS

As much as we love Poe, we have two members of the Ravens' family who actually belong to the species, Rise and Conquer. The two birds live at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore and can be visited by fans. Fans also have an opportunity to see the birds appear at home games and a number of different Ravens events throughout the calendar year. For more information, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

M&T BANK STADIUM HISTORY

On May 6, 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced their partnership, which included a 15-year, $75 million agreement with naming rights to the Ravens' home field, M&T Bank Stadium, as well as several important community-based programs that are jointly administered.

At the announcement, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said: "We knew from the onset that we did not want a company that wasn't established and without a great track record. There were other banks that we were calling about naming rights, because that was the category we wanted to fill, but the timing was perfect [with M&T] because they were coming in to a new market [Maryland]."

M&T Bank's long history began in western New York, but the company has expanded throughout the East Coast. There are more than 700 branches in the Mid-Atlantic, including Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania. The bank was founded 153 years ago and is one of the 20 largest commercial bank corporations in the nation.

The partnership is deeply rooted in the idea of community service. M&T Bank became the lead sponsor of the Ravens All Community Team, which unites the Ravens with Baltimore's business leaders to support our community in meaningful ways. This support includes fundraising, volnteerism and involvement in projects that meet some of its most pressing needs.

"M&T Bank's relationship with the Ravens goes far beyond our name on the stadium," said Mark Czarnecki, president of M&T Bank. "M&T and the Ravens have become community partners, working together to strengthen communities through a variety of initiatives. Employees from the two organizations work side-by-side as volunteers renovating homes, distributing food to the hungry and building neighborhood playgrounds. M&T Bank is proud to be the official bank of the Ravens, and we're proud to be part of the fabric of the community."

M&T Bank also sponsors Honor Rows, a program that provides game tickets to youth service organizations and the nationally-renowned Baltimore's Marching Ravens. For more information about this community service, log on to baltimoreravens.com.

TRAINING CAMP

The Ravens training camp is located at McDaniel College in Westminster, MD. This is the Ravens' 14th summer-training session at the campus. McDaniel College is a private liberal arts and sciences college with an enrollment of 1,600 students. MDC is located 30 minutes from the Ravens' Owings Mills practice facility and 50 minutes from downtown Baltimore. Training camp practice information is updated daily via recorded message at (410) 261-RAVE (7283) and on the team's Web site: www.baltimoreravens.com, where fans may get both the latest practice schedule and the weather. Practice dates and times are subject to change.

"The Ravens have partnered with McDaniel College since 1996, and we truly enjoy our relationship with the Westminster community. Our plan is to keep our training camp at McDaniel."

- Steve Bisciotti, Ravens Owner

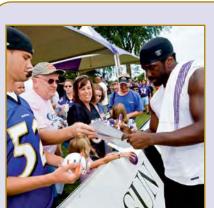

Note to Media: A workroom with wireless capability is available at the Best Western Hotel in Westminster (410) 857-1900. Players and coaches are available for interviews after morning practices, usually at 11:00 am. Contact Chad Steele at Chad.Steele@Ravens.nfl.net for 2009 training camp credentials.

Practices are free and open to the public with times and conditions subject to change. All fans and media are reminded to check the latest practice information by calling (410) 261-RAVE or by logging on to www.baltimoreravens.com.

Joe Flacco (above) and Ray Lewis (below) are two of the many players and coaches who spend countless hours throughout camp signing autographs for fans. Most players will sign items until they have to leave for meetings, media interviews or weightlifting sessions. Fans should call in advance of driving out to camp to check for updates on weather and practice times.
